

Dr. Alessandro Preti -- dirigente tecnologo I livello
Organizational managerial area of research bodies

A) Professional Skills

He has a sound professional qualification proven by many years of experience in the administration and management of complex structures in Public research organizations. He having performed executive functions for over 17 years, including 7 years of top executive level, at the National Research Council, as responsible of Management of Human and Financial Resources, as well as consultant to the General Managers of other national research bodies.

As from 1 September 2020 he has been detached to the Anton Dohrn Station in Naples (an Italian Public research body) where he has taken on the role of coordinator of the Technical - Administrative Area to which the following six Offices belong:

- Information and Statistical Systems (SIST);
- Occupational Health and Safety Planning Service;
- Building and plant maintenance;
- Accounting, Finance and Budget;
- Human resources;
- Tenders, Contracts, Supplies and Administrative Acts.

Studies skills

- Master degree in Economics at "La Sapienza" University of Rome (110/110)
- Chartered accountant since 1994;
- Employee since 1993 at CNR, with executive positions since 2002 in the fields of planning, organization, management, monitoring and control human and financial resources;
- Statutory Auditor, registered in 1999, operating Consortia / Associations owned by research bodies;
- Member Since 2005 (in position of statutory auditor representing public legal entity), of several Boards of Directors and/or Statutory Auditors Boards, of Associations, Foundations, Consortia with participation of public research bodies, universities and companies (OPTEL - RFX - CO.RILA - BIO.FOR.ME. - AIRI);
- Consultant since 2004, in Administration, Taxation and Public and Private Accounting to research bodies (ICRAM and ISFOL) and to the Ministry of Economy and Finance;
- Teacher and trainer in public accounting and work organization, management and control;
- Registered since 2018 in the O.I.V.(independent assessment bodies in public administrations)
- recently appointed OIV member of the National Institute of Astrophysics (INAF).
- Publicist since 1996 - Il Sole 24 Ore and Il Tempo di Roma (over 450 articles).